

Reading Policy

Reading is the key to learning. Through reading one learns to become an autonomous learner. At our school we strongly believe in this and thus to further encourage reading, the library has been completely renovated. Also, students are obliged to have a reading book continuously with them, and use it whenever they have any opportunity. During such moments all students are to maintain silence so as to help each other to read.